

10 class story - 4th March 2021

Buraz and the Beanstalk

Once upon a time, there was an adventurous and brave boy called Buraz, who lived with his mother in a small cottage in the middle of the woods.

They were very poor so Buraz went to the market to sell their cockapoo who was called Baxter. On his way, he met a strange looking man. He gave Buraz some magic potatoes and took Baxter. Buraz felt excited.

Unfortunately, his mother was furious and threw the potatoes out of the window.

The next day, Buraz couldn't believe his eyes when he saw an enormous beanstalk in his garden. He began to climb it. It went higher and higher and higher.

At the top of the beanstalk, there was a large house made out of solid gold sitting on a fluffy cloud.

First, he pushed open the heavy door.

Next, he crept in and stole shiny, emerald stone and a toy monster.

Suddenly, he heard FEE FI FO FUM and a huge giant came stomping out.

Buraz was quick and he ran and ran back to the top of the beanstalk and slid all the way down to the bottom.

Luckily, he found a sharp axe and chopped and chopped until the beanstalk came crashing down and so did the giant.

Buraz and his mother lived happily ever after.

The end.