

1M's Class Story – Belle and the Beanstalk

Once upon a time, there was a little fairy called Belle who lived with her mother in a small cottage in the middle of the woods.

They were very poor, so Belle went to the market to sell: Rosie the chicken, Thomas the elephant and a large, brown horse. On her way, she met a strange looking man. He gave Belle a magical potion liquid with some chocolate buttons, and took the chicken, the elephant and the horse. Belle felt excited.

Unfortunately, her mother was furious and so she threw the magical potion and chocolate buttons out of the window.

The next day, the fairy found an enormous beanstalk in her garden. She began to climb it. It went higher and higher and higher.

At the top of the beanstalk, there was a delicious candy land and colourful fairground on a magical island. Hidden on this island was a scaly dragon, spurring out fire as hot as the sun.

First, Belle pushed open the huge golden gates.

Next, she crept onto the island and stole some golden Lego, shiny diamonds, a magical guitar, a golden book and lots of magical flowers. The fairy carried them in her wicker basket.

Suddenly, she heard FEE FI FO FUM and a huge giant came stomping out.

Belle was quick and she ran and ran back to the top of the beanstalk and slid all the way down to the bottom.

Luckily, she found a sharp axe and chopped and chopped at the trunk of the beanstalk until it came crashing down, and so did the giant.

Belle the fairy and her mother lived happily ever after.
